Lisbon, Auguſt 18.

ON the 13th Inſtant his Portugueſe Majeſty appointed the Marqueſſes Alegrete and Angeja; the Counts Cantahede, Unham, and Sabugoza; Baron Oriola; General Teles; and the Viſcount Cerveira, to be Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber. The ſame Day the Counts de St. Laurencco and Tavora were appointed Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber to the Infant Don Pedro, his Majeſty's Brother; and the next Day his Majeſty named the Counteſſes Pombeyro, and Prado, and Mademoiſelle Hercuana, to be Ladies of the Bed-Chamber to the Queen.

Naples, Aug. 25. An illicit Trade having been carried on for ſome Time paſt on the Side of Calabria, the King has ordered two armed Galliots to be ſtationed there, in order to put a Stop to the ſame, and prevent its being carried on for the Future. It having been repreſented to his Majeſty, that the City of Barletta, upon the Adriatick Sea, was very commodiouſly ſituated for the Advantage of Commerce and Navigation, and that the Port belonging to that City might be ſo contrived, as that Ships of Burthen might ride there in Safety in tempeſtuous Weather, Orders have been given for repairing and enlarging the ſame, ſo as to make it one of the moſt commodious Ports in Italy; for which Purpoſe great Quantities of Materials of all Sorts, neceſſary for that Work, ſeveral Workmen, and a great Number of Gally Slaves, have already been put on Board two Xebecks, named the St. Anthony and St. Januarius; which two Xebecks are almoſt ready to put to Sea for Barletta. The Banditti, which for a long Time infeſted ſeveral of the Provinces of this Kingdom, have at length diſappeared, at leaſt we hear no more of any Robberies committed by them, which, 'tis imagined, is chiefly owing to the good Conduct of Counſellor Scaffa the Criminal Judge, who has cauſed ſeveral of them to be put to Death, and others to be committed to Priſon. The Barbary Corſairs have alſo left our Coaſt, and 'tis not doubted but that if the other Powers of Italy would ſecond the Efforts of this Court againſt thoſe Pirates, they would very ſoon be obliged to keep in their own Ports. On the 19th Inſtant his Majeſty went to the Iſland of Procide to take the Diverſion of Hunting of Pheaſants, and returned the ſame Evening to his Palace in this City, where all the Royal Family continue to enjoy a good State of Health. A few Days ago died the Duke de Bonetto, at his Country Seat, of an Apoplectick Fit. On Tueſday laſt a Woman was executed here, having been convicted of poiſoning her Husband and her two Children.

Leghorn, Aug. 28. Advice has been received here, that the Emperor's three Ships of War, which ſailed from this Port on the 18th Inſtant, have doubled the Cape of Panaro on the Side of Sicily, which confirms us in Opinion, that thoſe Ships are bound firſt for Trieſte, and then for Conſtantinople.

Parma, Aug. 28. The Pregnancy of her Highneſs the Princeſs, Spouſe to the Prince our Sovereign, was declared at Colorno on the 25th Inſtant, being St. Louis's Day, which Name her Highneſs bears: On this Occaſion the Court was very numerous and extremely brilliant; and at Night ſeveral Fireworks were played off, and a general Diſcharge was made of the Cannon upon our Ramparts: As her Highneſs deſigns Lying-in here, the Ducal Palace is ordered to be got ready for that Purpoſe againſt the Month of December next. This Court is gone into Mourning for the Death of the late King of Portugal.

Barcelona, Aug. 28. Advice having been received ſome Days ago, that ſix Corſairs of Barbary were cruizing off our Coaſts, in order to intercept two Regiſter Ships which were expected Home from the Weſt Indies; the Governor of this Place immediately gave Orders for four Frigates and three ſmall Veſſels to go out in Queſt of them, who coming up with them the next Day, a ſmart Engagement enſued, in which two of the Corſairs were ſunk, and the reſt drove off the Coaſt, ſince which we have heard no more of them. A contagious Diſtemper continuing to rage on the African Coaſt, and particularly at Fez, the Court has ſent Orders to Ceuta not to ſuffer any Ships to come into that Port from thence, without performing Quarantine.

Petersbourg, Aug. 28. Laſt Night the Empreſs, accompanied by the Principal Lords and Ladies of the Court, ſupped with Count Raſoumoſki, the new Atteman or General of the Coſſacks, who had made great Preparations at his Palace for her Imperial Majeſty's Reception. All the Palace and Gardens were beautifully illuminated; and after Supper there was a grand Ball, which laſted till Break of Day, when the Empreſs took her Leave, greatly pleaſed with her Reception.

Stockholm, Sept. 3. The King ſtill continues his Reſidence at Carlsberg, from whence his Majeſty often comes to this City, to aſſiſt at the Deliberations of the Senate. According to our laſt Advices from Finland, every Thing there remains in perfect Tranquility.

Vienna, Sept. 5. Field Marſhal Bathiani, and the Generals Daun and Philibert, who commanded the Troops encamped at Colin, are arrived here; and his Imperial Majeſty is expected at Schonbrun, from Bohemia in about ten Days. Yeſterday a grand Council was held at Court in the Preſence of her Imperial Majeſty, at the breaking up of which ſeveral Expreſſes were diſpatched to Foreign Courts. The Treaty of Subſidy, which was ſigned at Hanover the 22d of last Month, between the Maritime Powers and the Elector of Bavaria, gives the Empress great Satisfaction. The Affair concerning the Religious Grievances in the Principality of Hohenloe, is still depending before the Aulick Council of the Empire; and 'tis thought no final Resolution will be taken on that Head, till after the Return of the Emperor from Bohemia, and that of M. Vorster from Hanover. The Departure of Prince Esterhasi, on his Embassy to the Court of Naples, will take Place towards the End of this Month; and 'tis said M. Jorger is appointed to go as Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Denmark. Most of the heavy Baggage of the Marquess de Hautefort, Ambassador from France, is arrived here. On the 2d Instant her Imperial Majesty, accompanied by the Archdutchess Elizabeth, went to Mannerstorff, from whence they returned Yesterday.

Breslau, Sept. 9. The King arrived on the 6th Instant at the Camp at Hundsfeld; on the 7th all the Troops encamped there passed in Review before his Majesty; and on the 8th they performed several Exercises, Evolutions, and Firings; that Night a Fire broke out in the Stable of a House so near his Majesty's Quarters, that he had but just Time to get away before the Flames had taken hold of his Apartment.

Franckfort, Sept. 12. On the 26th of last Month died, at his Palace the Castle of Hegnow, Anthony Casimir de Sichingen, Bishop of Constance, in the 71st Year of his Age.

Copenhagen, Sept. 12. Their Danish Majesties came hither last Tuesday from Jagerspries in perfect Health, and this Afternoon they propose to set out for Friedensberg, where it is supposed they will remain for the rest of the Month. By Advices from Norway we are assured, that the Pearl Fishery has been very successful this Year on the Side of Dronthem, they having already got a much greater Quantity than they have done in any one preceeding Year.

Berlin, Sept. 12. On Wednesday last the Margrave Charles received an Express from Bernbourg, with an Account, that the Princess Sophia his Sister, Spouse to the reigning Prince of Anhalt Bernbourg, died there on the 7th Instant, in the 38th Year of her Age. They write from Breslau, that the King had reviewed at the Camp at Hundsfeld, the Regiment of Fuzileers of Du Moulin; that of Foot of Mischefal; that of Dragoons of Nassau, and that of Hussars of Dewitz; and that his Majesty seemed greatly pleased with their Appearance.

Dresden, Sept. 15. They write from Warsaw, that the Senatus Consilium continued its Assembly; and that the King seemed determined to go to Petrikau, if, contrary to all Expectation, the Activity of that Tribunal should stop on Account of their not being able to elect a Marshal. Count Fleming, his Polish Majesty's Minister to the Court of Great Britain, is returned hither from Hanover, but proposes going thither again to take Leave of his Britannick Majesty as soon as he returns from the Gohrde; from whence that Minister will set out for the Court of Vienna, where he is appointed to reside with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary.

Cologn, Sept. 16. Yesterday Count Konigsegg, Vice Dean of the Metropolitan Church of this City, was elected Dean thereof. The same Day Count Wolfegg, Canon of the Chapter of Constance, set out from hence for that City, in order to be present at the Election of a new Bishop. Hollenstein and Wasner, are appointed to accompany his Highness in this Tour.

Hague, Sept. 18. We are informed by Letters from Loo, that the Princess Dowager of Orange was arrived at Leuwarden, and that her Highness proposed spending a Fortnight or three Weeks at that Castle. Field Marshal Count Maurice of Nassau Ouwerkerk has obtained Leave of the States General to pass some Months in England, and is preparing to set out for that Kingdom. By Advices from Hanover of the 11th Instant, we are informed, that Count Bentinck was arrived at Brunswick, and was preparing to set out for the Gohrde, in order to wait on his Britannick Majesty.
